04. The rates quoted should be for the work at the place mentioned in the schedule. The necessary superscription, due date for the receipt of quotations, the date up to which the rates will have to remain firm for acceptance, and the name and address of the officer to whom the quotation is to be sent are also noted in the schedule. Any quotation received after the time fixed on the due date is liable to be rejected. The maximum period required for the work should also be mentioned. Quotations not stipulating period of firmness and with price variation clause and/or 'subject to prior sale' condition are liable to be rejected .

05. The acceptance of the quotations will be subject to the following conditions:-

1 . Acceptance of the quotation constitutes a concluded contract. Nevertheless, the successful tenderer must, within a fortnight after the acceptance of his quotation, execute an agreement at his own cost for the satisfactory fulfilment of the contract, if so required.

2. Withdrawal from the quotation after it is accepted or failure to supply within a specified time or according to specifications will entail cancellation of the order and purchases being made at the offeror's expenses from elsewhere, any loss incurred thereby being payable by the defaulting party. In such an event, the Government reserves, also the right to remove the defaulter's name from the list of Government suppliers permanently or for a specified number of years.

3. No representation for enhancement of price once accepted will be considered during the currency of the contract.

4. Any attempt on the part of Quotationers or their agents to influence the Officers concerned in their favour by personal canvassing will disqualify the Quotationers.

5. If any license or permit is required, Quotationers must specify in their quotation and also state the authority to whom the application is to be made.

6. In cases where a successful Quotationer, after having made partial supplies fails to fulfill the contracts in full, all or any of the materials not supplied may, at the discretion of the Purchasing Officer be purchased by means of another tender/quotation or by negotiation or from the next higher Quotationer, who had offered to supply already and the loss, if any, caused to the Government shall thereby together with such sums as may be fixed by the Government towards damages be recovered from the defaulting tenderer.

7. Even in cases where no alternate repairs are arranged for the materials not supplied, the proportionate portion of the security deposit based on the cost of the materials not supplied at the rate shown in the Quotation of the defaulter shall be forfeited, and the balance alone shall be refunded.

8. Any sum of money due and payable to the contractor (including Security Deposit returnable to him) under this contract may be appropriated by the Purchasing Officer or Government or any other person authorized by Government and set-off against any claim of the Purchasing Officer or Government for the payment of a sum of money arising out of or under any other contract made by the contractor with the Purchasing officer or Government or any other person authorized by Government.

9. The prices quoted should be inclusive of all taxes, duties, cesses, etc., which are or may become payable by the contractor under existing or future laws or rules of the Country of origin/supply or delivery during the course of execution of the contract.

10. (a) Ordinarily, payments will be made only after the supplies are actually verified and taken to stock, but in exceptional cases, payments against satisfactory shipping documents, including certificates of Insurance, will be made up to 90 per cent of the value of the materials at the discretion of the Government. Bank charges incurred in connection with payment against documents through the bank will be to the account of the contractor. The firms will produce stamped prereceipted invoices in all cases where payments (advance/final) for the release of railway receipts/shipping documents are made through Banks. In exceptional cases where the stamped receipts of the firms are not received for the payments (in advance), the unstamped receipt of the Bank (i.e. counterfoils of pay slips issued by the Bank) alone may be accepted as a valid poof for the payment made.

10. (b) The Quotationers shall also quote the percentage of rebate (discount) offered by them in case the payment is made promptly within fifteen days/within one month of taking delivery of stores.

11. Special conditions, if any, printed on the quotation sheets of the Quotationer or attached with the Quotation will not apply to the contract unless they are expressly accepted in writing by the purchasers.
