Circular No. 21/2021

Sub: Police Estt: - State Special Branch – Analysis Wing – Duties & Responsibilities – Guidelines issued - Reg.

Read: Ltr No.33/Camp/ADGP (Intl.)/2021/SB dtd 16/06/2021 from ADGP (Intelligence).

An Analysis Wing was created to function under the Intelligence Wing of the State Special Branch in 2018. This was created by attaching personnel on Working Arrangement with SSB vide order DGO No:848/2018 dt:02.06.2018. The Analysis wing is engaged in Intelligence Analysis using Qualitative and Quantitative Analysis Techniques. They analyze day-to-day intelligence received from the field, and also use data available from the different sources and other database available in the state.

The work to be carried out by the Analysis wing are:-

- Analyzing the data related to major issues occurring in the state, for eg. Natural Calamities, Epidemics, Elections, Corruption, Communal and religious conflicts, issues related to Extremist activities, Gender issues, problems in Government Public Service etc.
- Analysis of data related to the Crime Trends in the State/District wise and compare with the National data.
- Analyzing of communications by criminals and persons inimical to security of State.
- All other works as directed by ADGP Intelligence/State Police Chief.

Structure and Supervision of the Analysis wing

- a) The Analysis Wing at present consists of twenty personnel on deputation for a period of three to five years. They will be taken to State Special Branch on Working Arrangement from the AP Battalion, and District Police. The ADGP (Intelligence) will periodically collect the willingness of the personnel who have proficiency in Mathematics, Computer programming, Languages and having high mental ability. The capacity of the willing Police Personnel will be tested through a computer and paper based test. In addition to this, SSB will conduct a detailed background check of the short listed personnel. The nominal list of the willing personnel will be submitted to the State Police Chief for approval and issuing order to attach them on Working Arrangement to the State Special Branch.
- b) The Analysis Wing of SSB HQ will carry out their works under the direction and supervision of Supdt. of Police (Intelligence) assisted by DySP (Intelligence).
- c) Every year their Performance Evaluation has to be done and Working Arrangement to be extended purely on merit.
