Circular No. 30/2010

Sub: - Police Estt- Guidelines for the posting of directly recruited SIs of Police (GE) in Special Units- issued- reg.

The Police Establishment Board meeting held on 31/05/2010 had considered the request of a directly recruited SI (GE) for posting to a Special Unit. It was decided that the directly recruited SIs (GE) should be given opportunity to work in Police Stations for a specified period so that they can familiarise with the functioning of Police Stations and acquire experience in basic police functions. It is decided that they should work in a Police Station for at least 3 years before being considered for posting in any of the Special Units.

All the unit heads shall ensure that the directly recruited SIs (GE) is posted to Police Station for 3 years before they are considered for posting in Special Units.

Any request/proposal for posting in Special Units should specifically mention about the period for which he has worked in Police Station.

Any relaxation in the condition mentioned above may be authorized by the Director General of Police under exceptional circumstances.
