Ward-Level Committees to monitor people in house quarantine

Loknath Behera, State Police Chief, has directed Police Personnel in Ward-Level Committees to ensure seven days home quarantine for people got discharged from hospitals after curing COVID 19. District Police Chiefs will ensure this.

It has been noticed that people coming from other states used to roam and violates quarantine restrictions. Janamaithri Police, Special Branch and Ward-Level Committees will initiate necessary measures to monitor these people. District Police Chiefs will coordinate all these activities. People in house quarantine will be under 24 hour surveillance of the Janamaithri Police and Police Volunteers.
