Chief Minister inaugurates Thampanoor Police Station Building

The first high rise police station building in the State has started functioning in Thiruvananthapuram. The Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan has dedicated the four-storey building constructed for the Thampanoor Police Station to the natives. V S Siva Kumar, MLA, K Sreekumar, Mayor, Dr. Vishwas Mehta, Additional Chief Secretary, Home Department, Raman Srivastava, Police Advisor and other senior officers have attended the function. The building has started function after long years of waiting.

The facilities are set up according to the need of police in the modern world. Adequate rooms for police personnel, Rooms for keeping mainour and weapons, conference hall, CD File Stock Room, Interrogation Room are some of them. Computer, Wi-Fi, Camera Monitoring Systems etc have been set up with the help of modern technology. Habitat has finished construction of the building at a cost of Rupees 2.2 Crores. The building has been constructed in an eco friendly way by minimizing the cost of construction. V G Ajith Kumar, State Police Commando Inspector and his team have shown a demo describing the Commando Operation.

The Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan has flagged off the 10 Cheetah Patrol Vehicles brought to reduce the traffic congestion in Thiruvananthapuram City.
