Student Police Cadets honored for increasing Voting percentage in Attappadi

The State Police Chief Loknath Behera has congratulated the 44 Student Police Cadets for making awareness on the VVPAT electronic voting machines in Attappadi and thereby creating 14% hike in voting during the last Loksabha Election.

The State Police Chief has congratulated the cadets, Sathyam Master, Principal, Government VHSS, Agali and the teachers Joseph Antony, Sisily Teacher and Rangan Master for leading the cadets during a function held at Police Headquarters in connection with the voter's day. Due to the initiatives of the Cadets, Nanji, a 104 year old granny who went for voting has been reported by national media too.

Arif Muhammed khan, Governor of Kerala, distributed certificates and memento to the Student Police Cadets, Teachers and P Vijayan, IGP, for overseeing the awareness programs during a program held at Ayyankali Hall in the morning. Tom Jose, Chief Secretary, Teeka Ram Meena, Chief Electoral Officer and Loknath Behera, State Police Chief attended the function.
