Police faced epidemic without any training : Chief Minister

Pinarayi Vijayam, Chief Minister, has said that the act of police in facing the epidemic without any training is exemplary to the society. He added that the financial condition of the Government would not be an obstacle to bringing in basic facilities and development to police. He was inaugurating the new buildings constructed for six police stations through video conference. He also inaugurated the Quarters constructed for police personnel, Barrack and District Training Centre for Police.

The fact that a few policemen turned Covid positive recently, will not affect the functioning or work of the police. He also lauded the efforts of police were for providing electronic learning materials to children who had stopped education due to the lockdown.

Chief Minister has inaugurated the new buildings online constructed for Thumba in Thiruvananthapuram City, Udumbanchola in Idukki, Alathur and Kongad in Palakkad, Pookkottumpadam and Kadampuzha Police Stations in Malappuram. District Training Centre in Kasaragod, Quarters at Muttambalam in Kottayam, Mankara in Palakkad and Police Barrack in Kerala Police Academy.

Ministers, MPs, MLAs and senior officers have attended the inaugural function online from various centres.
