No.48/PR/SPMC/PHQ/2020

Date:12.02.2020

PRESS NOTE

We have received a copy of the CAG report relating to the Performance Audit for 2013 – 18. Audit report of CAG, as per the procedure, has to be sent by the Government to the Public Accounts Committee (PAC) and it is the PAC which is competent and empowered to take decisions on the allegations.

We will give reply to the concerned authority as per procedure and rules.

Every year such audit reports are received and we follow the due procedure to give replies on the allegations raised in the reports. Similarly, this year also, the replies will be provided to the concerned authorities in due course. It is also a legal and legislative process as PAC of the legislature is involved. Therefore the information on each allegation will be provided to the PAC.
