Dear Sir/Madam,

The inaugural edition of the National Police Perspective Management (NPPM) Course for senior officers from States, Union Territories and the CAPFs & CPOs, organised to coincide with the Golden Jubilee event of the BPR&D, evoked a positive feedback from the participants. It was felt by the participants that the NPPM fulfilled the training need of preparing the upcoming leadership for the challenges that lay ahead.

Encouraged by the response, the Training Division of the BPR&D is preparing to run the 2nd NPPM Course, in the online format, from November 16 to 20, 2020. The Programme is meant for officers of the rank of SP to ADG, and equivalent, from the Civil Police, CAPFs and the CPOs. The intake for the course would be restricted to around 20-25 officers, in all, in order to facilitate participative interaction.

The course is designed to expose the participants to a wide variety of professional concerns relating to Policing, including Leadership, the Security Context, Predictive Policing, Policing for Women & Children, De-radicalization, Dark Net & Cyber Crime, Policing for Women & Children, Finer Aspects of Investigation & Prosecution, Concerns of VIP Security, Practical Policing, Leveraging Intelligence for Policing and Disaster Management. Apart from in-house faculty, eminent domain experts and practitioners from outside, would help conduct the programme with a happy mix of presentations, lectures and panel discussions.

All the DsGP/DGs/Directors are requested to nominate one participant each, from their respective States/CAPFs/CPOs/Organisations for the course. Nominations with name, rank and current place of posting, email ID, Contact Nos., etc., may please be sent so as to reach us by November 6, 2020, on email ID: adtic@bprd.nic.in.

Regards,

Yours Sincerely,

Neeraj Sinha
