Karkkadaka Vavu Bali Rituals should be conducted at homes

Loknath Behera, State Police Chief, has informed that no congregations will be allowed to conduct rituals in connection with the Karkkadaka Vavu Bali. Rituals should be conducted at their respective homes only.

He has also directed all the District Police Chiefs to inform this to the general public and the concerned office bearers/Authorities of different congregations and religious institutions.

The decision has been taken after the Ministry of Home Affairs notified to stop all such congregations/ assembly of public until 31st July in view of the spread of Covid 19.
